There is Always Hope

A few weeks ago, I decided not to do a Christmas newsletter this year. Demands at work have left me fatigued and without much time and to be honest I've been feeling a little down. So, it seemed that this would be one thing that I could let go. Since making that decision, the Lord has reminded me of so many things...of his purpose...his grace... And, after eating a bit of humble pie, it seemed prudent to get to work on this newsletter.

I receive questions, emails, or messages weekly from sponsors, friends, and others who are just curious about what is going on in Haiti. They ask if it is worth it...is there any point...is there any hope.... And I must admit, sometimes I struggle with answers.

I shared with Cladel (Jeremiah Ministries) the concerns of those who have been brave enough to ask. And here is what he said:

"I really understand the feeling of those people but I know they are in emotion by seeing all that is happening in Haiti now. "Then I would like to remind them that Haitian people still love everyone, specially foreigners. Then as a leader, not only me, we feel very concerned about what is going on here and always in prayers, we are waiting for God's answers but he is the one who is doing it not us. So just like Prophet Elijah says we must be constantly in prayer until we have an answer from our Almighty God, the one who knows everything.

"I would say to them there is HOPE for HAITI because God has his people there and very soon something will be happen for sure, when there is darkness there will be light after and God is the LIGHT and he promised us he won't give up on us, Alleluia! His eyes is on us. Don't you believe that?

"The way things are look like Haiti does not exist, but Haiti does exist. According to us we still have joy and Haitian people wants to live. If God is with us who shall be against us.

"We are moving here, Churches are in prayers constantly, my ordination as Pastor is for January in our first anniversary, God is doing great things through our lives. Please tell our donors that Haiti will not perish."

So, as long as "God has his people there," there is most definitely hope! Alleluia!

1 Corinthians 15:58

"Therefore, my dear brothers and sisters, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain."
